

Investment advisory boutique is seeking an Analyst Intern

CB Equity Partners (“CBE”) is an investment advisory boutique with offices in London and Hamburg.

CBE sources transactions to and advises funds, hedge funds, financial institutions and private equity or industry bidders, mostly in the asset class real estate.

Having arranged transactions in excess of EUR 2bn in the last three years, CBE is a leading investment advisory boutique in the commercial real estate sector. CBE has also arranged and advised on investments in distressed asset classes such as banks, mortgage-banks, public sector banks, NPL or SPL acquisitions and the financing of such transactions.

Date

Summer 2013

Subject

Internship

The Analyst Intern will join the London based corporate finance team.

Key responsibilities include:

- Gathering market data to analyse trends and help assessing transactions
- Creating and analysing financial models
- Drafting of presentations/ information memoranda
- Contributing to team discussions and client meetings
- Assist in the execution of corporate finance transactions

The ideal candidate will have:

- Excellent academic credentials
- Strong analytical skills and at ease with interpreting financial data
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills (fluent German preferred)
- Strong attention to detail
- Experience in corporate finance or the wider financial sector preferred
- Good knowledge of the MS Office package

Contact:

CB Equity Partners
Dr Geza Martin Toth-Feher
Geza.Toth-Feher@cbequity.com
+ 44 (0) 207 499 4596
60 St. James's Street
London SW1A 1LE
UK